

HEAR THAT CLICK

Written by MoDOT Community Relations Manager Mark Baumgartner

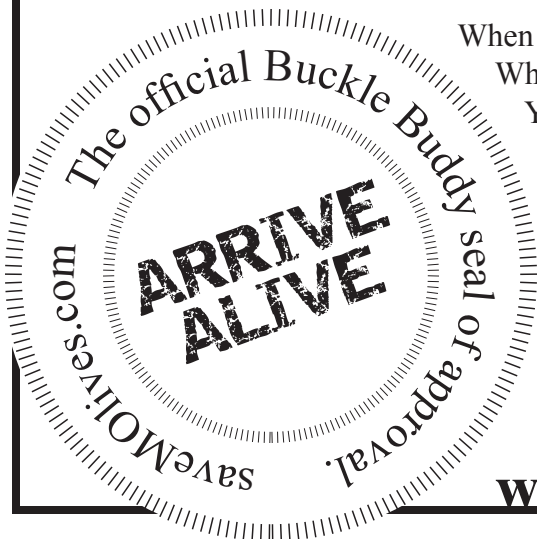

When your Mom and Dad pick you up after school
When you climb in the car, there's just one rule
Hey there buddy, have you buckled up yet?
This car's not moving forward till I hear that click

When I hear that click
When I hear that click, click, click, click, click
Your mommy and your daddy and your little baby brother
They all wanna hear that click

Don't you wanna be safe, don't you wanna be cool?
When you hop in the car, just remember the rule
It's not hard; it's not a magic trick
The sweetest sound in the world is when you hear that click

When you hear that click
When you hear that click, click, click, click, click
Your mommy and your daddy and your little baby brother
They all wanna hear that click

When you hear that click
When you hear that click, click, click, click, click
Your mommy and your daddy and your grandma and your grandpa,
All your aunts and all your uncles and your sister and your teacher
And your little baby brother
They all wanna hear that click
